

love in action

TRAINING CENTRE

Medical Clinics * Micro Business * Rice Bank
Feeding Programs * Orphanage

Protocols

1. No discipline is to be administered to the orphanage children by you personally under any circumstances.
Only the LIA director or person in charge are permitted to discipline children for misbehaviour.
2. Cambodia is a difficult country with cultural differences to your own
The training centre is run the way it is for reasons some of which may seem unorthodox to newcomers.
Your suggestions toward love in action, are always welcomed, but don't be offended if they are not acted on.
3. All volunteers are expected to be open and teachable to the authority of Love in Action.
4. All volunteers must seek permission from the authority of Love in Action whenever they wish to:
 - * pursue a task on behalf of L.I.A
 - * commence any work on the premises
 - * When working with the children in any project.
5. Unless otherwise arranged with L.I.A, your work for Love in Action is on a voluntary basis and you will not receive any financial gain or reward.
This is a faith work and as such, it rely's on God's provision, donations and voluntary help of good people.
Please ensure that when staying in Cambodia for extended periods that you have adequate funds available for your stay or have your own fund raising in place.
Let God be your provider according to His Riches in Christ Jesus!
6. I understand that Love in Action is not liable for any personal injury, damage and/or loss of personal possessions whilst on L.I.A properties and works within Cambodia.
7. Long term volunteers please be aware that by committing to LIA for a longer period you have put yourself under Love in Action's complete training for this time. (ie three to six months) We need your total reliability and communication regarding any change in arrangements. LIA reserves the right to ask you to leave at any time if deemed necessary.

I sign this document with full understanding of the above protocols and will abide by these rules when in the confines of the LIA compound or when performing duties for Love in Action within the country of Cambodia.
